Custodianship–Governance Reconciliation

The above entity holds PMSI materials solely as an interim legal custodian. Custodianship does not confer governance, interpretive, or decision-making authority. All authority, constraints, and scope enforcement governing PMSI remain exclusively defined by and subordinate to the PMSI Governance Charter v1.0. Any future stewardship structure, if constituted, derives authority only from the Charter and not from custodial possession.

Custodial Note

The above entity holds PMSI materials in a custodial, non-commercial capacity only. No operational, interpretive, or commercial authority is conferred by this custodianship. No physical address is asserted or required for PMSI purposes.

Canonical Scope Summary

- PMSI is a reference layer only.
- PMSI defines terms, measurement specifications, and reference indices.
- PMSI does not execute, verify, certify, evaluate, or interpret outcomes.
- PMSI maintains strict neutrality from execution, verification, and commercial entities.
- If PMSI disappeared, nothing would break—only clarity would be lost.

This project is analytical and non-authoritative; it defines reference terms and measurement specifications only and does not execute, verify, certify, evaluate, interpret, or confer operational, legal, or commercial authority.
